

Altair Equipment Continuous Blow-down Units

Use of continuous blow-down controls dissolved solids levels in the boiler drum, eliminating erratic concentration levels due to intermittent blow downs. By transferring the heat of the blow down stream to the boiler make-up water, we reduce your operating costs, while reducing the blow down waste stream discharge temperature.