

Altair Equipment Reverse Osmosis Systems

Continuous high purity effluent for process and boiler feed. Altair reverse osmosis systems utilize low pressure energy efficient thin film membranes for longevity and low cost operation. 99% rejection. Single and double pass systems with PLC controls, welded steel frames. Altair reverse osmosis systems offer as standard features many of the components that are optional on other manufactures systems.